ST. JOE'S

ROGUES

Joseph M. Breitenbeck

BISHOP, DIOCESE OF GRAND RAPIDS

If there is one thing a bishop needs from the members of his diocese, it is complete support and confidence in him.

This past year Bishop Breitenbeck has shown his full support in the seminary. He has spoken on how important and fundamental St. Joe's Seminary is to the Diocese of Grand Rapids and neighboring dioceses.

Bishop Breitenbeck's job as bishop is not an easy one. His schedule is very busy and thus we do not get the opportunity to see him as much as we wish we could.

✠ Bishops

Joseph C. McKinney

AUXILIARY BISHOP, DIOCESE OF GRAND RAPIDS

Speaking of not seeing Bishop Breitenbeck too much, we do not see much of Bishop McKinney either.

Like Bishop Breitenbeck he has a full and busy schedule serving the people of God in the Diocese of Grand Rapids.

May God give a special blessing to these devoted and faithful men of hard work to the people and seminarians of the diocese which they serve.

Sometimes one of the seminarians will ponder at the question, "What would St. Joe's Seminary be without Msgr. Moran?". We hope we never have to find out the answer to this question. For one must realize that Msgr. Moran has taught here for the past twenty-eight years, fifteen of those years as rector. The experience and knowledge behind this man is tremendous.

Day after day and year after year Msgr. Moran manages to keep St. Joe's running like a well oiled machine. When problems seem to arise they are quickly erased. How? By Msgr.'s special process which nobody really knows and which nobody would really care to know, just as long as it works! And it does.

St. Joe's Seminary was very lucky the day Msgr. Moran was appointed to teach at the seminary and we are very happy about that appointment in 1945.

*All best wishes,
Doug.

For three days we reflected on our lives, what we owe God,
and what God gives us.

We met life's problems head-on, problems in our community, in our lives, and in the world. In the end we found the answer to them——CHRIST.

Though our record during the season was poor, because of the tough competition, the team enjoyed themselves throughout the season. In tournament action we lost to the team that went on to be State Champs.

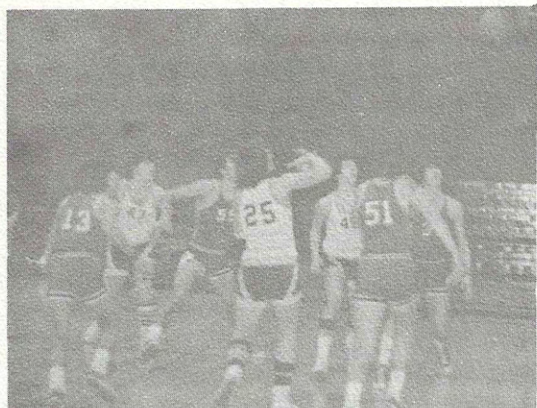

Bob Graham goes high against an opponent of the Martin Clippers in a jump ball, to tip it to a teammate.

Our players gather with Mr. Clingman for pre-game strategy.

Where Did it go?

Bob Graham puts one through while Mike O'Brien, Mike Sniegowski, and Allendale players seem mystified by his wizardry.
